Difference of Distances divided by the number of nodes

Euclidean distance between the true distances between the nodes and the estimated distances